Need Something To Do?! LOOK NO FURTHER...

This copy of Summer Boredom Busters is your key to what is happening in the realm of family fun! Here's how it works:

1. Use the Monthly Calendar pages to check out the day's events, including descriptions, times, & locations.
2. Use the Weekly Calendar to preview activities that consistently take place every week at the same time & same place.
3. Check out our list of area fireworks, & never miss a fireworks display this summer!
4. Get a Branch by Branch layout of the Summer Library Story Times. (Also check out additional library events in the Monthly & Weekly Events Sections.)
5. Need a last-minute activity on a sunny day? Check out the Parks section for a complete list of area parks in Toledo & the surrounding suburbs. Or visit a pool using the list of swimming locations in the area.
6. Want to try a Summer Camp out? See the listing of local Summer Camps for Pre-schoolers & Elementary Children.
7. If all else fails, check out some of the activities elsewhere in Ohio & Michigan by going to the Visitors Bureaus' websites provided.

Please Note: All of the activities researched for this event guide were accurate as of May 2011. Event content was edited to fit this guide. For full event details, call the individual contact information. Additional events that were added to researched summer calendars after the month of April may not be included in this guide.

HAVE FUN, it will be hard not to!

The History of Boredom Busters

Mothers' Center alumni Kristi Soller began Boredom Busters over a decade ago, in 2000. Her ultimate goal was to offer all of the members of Mothers Center a simple tool. The document she envisioned would allow the moms to easily see what was going on the next day as they made plans with their kids through the summer. To do this, she worked late into the night for months. Soller also enlisted the help of past MC member Lori Ziegler in designing the publication. Together they provided a list of all of the area summer events, in the publication now known as the "Boredom Busters".

Throughout the years the publication has changed, but many moms still look forward to discovering new ways to get out and do something different with their kids over the summer months. Thanks goes to Kristi Soller and all the other hard working MC mom's who have worked to make this publication a continued success!

Note: Volunteering for the Boredom Buster committee is not only a great way to keep this resource alive, but it is also helpful in learning more about the many opportunities available to your children. Consider helping out next year!
